TO OUR CLASS ADVISORS "THANKS" IS NOT ENOUGH

The phrase, Thank-you, seems so inappropriate to use. Our gratitude goes beyond the expression of words.

You have been with us from dawn to dusk — Mr. Scarsella, Mrs. Starr, Mr. Pupecki. We also owe a special thanks to Mr. Walter O'Malley and Mrs. Scarsella for helping us during our first years at Clinton High.

Our class spirit can be mainly attributed to your devotion, motivation and compassion for our goals. From our first project, Our Grocery Spree to Graduation Day you gave of yourselves freely and openly while demanding the best for the class of 1977.

Freshman Year – The Dawn

September, 1973, marked the dawning of the class of 1977. With the early morning rays brought confusion and apprehension of our years to come at CHS. We soon settled into a routine and became acquainted with the halls and rooms of Clinton High. We were introduced to our five advisors and were soon engaged in our first project — a Grocery Spree, which turned out to be the most successful project in the history of Clinton High.

Sophomore Year

No longer are we the lost generation of Clinton High School. We can now find our classrooms with ease, but now we must help the new Freshmen find theirs. We now find ourselves deeply involved in school activities. These include our first dance, our second and more successful Grocery Spree and Interclass Dramatics.

Traditionally sophomores are the youngest competitors in the Interclass Dramatics. The competition was tough and we didn't win the best play award, but we were surprised and delighted with four out of a possible eight awards. Lisa Paulino took the best actress trophy and Dan Eaton received the best supporting actor award. Also two honorable mention awards were given out, one to Cheryle O'Connell and the other to Mary Anna McNamara.

Homecoming Dance

"IF"

On November 8, 1975, the Junior Class held their first formal dance in the school cafeteria. After long hours of decorating, the cafeteria was transformed into a ballroom. We all became the "Cinderellas" and "Prince Charmings" for the evening. The Queen and her Court were chosen to be Jean Lamlein (Queen), Mary Conney, Noreen Gonyea, Gail McLaughlin, Jackie Roberts, Lynne Gallagher and Christine Lamb. The music was provided by Bittercreek. After much dancing, eating, and simply enjoying ourselves, the night ended and it was time to go home. "If" only it could have lasted longer!

Junior Year Interclass Dramatics – A VICTORY

"It's Cold in Them Thar Hills" was a tremendous success. The class of 1977 not only won the best play award but also received the best actress award — Lisa Paulino; best actor — Paul O'Malley; best supporting actor — Paul Iacobucci. We really owe much of our thanks to Huburt, a pig, and two chickens that we were able to borrow from a local farm.

The competition was tough, but because we had terrific support from our classmates, the class of 1977 met and conquered the challenge.

On May 28, 1976 one of the most nostalgic events of our high school years took place at the Sheraton-Lincoln Inn. Our theme was "Over the Rainbow," which was perfect for the day we had for our Prom. This day will always be a shining moment in our lives, especially for those who complemented our class as the Queen and Court. The anticipation was as exciting as the event. Even now that it's over it was a beautiful evening we shall never forget.

The Queen was: Lynne Gallagher.

The girls chosen to be in the Court were: Jean Lamlein, Mary Lynch, Marilyn Coyne, Ree Ricker, Noreen Gonyea, and Lisa Mallard.

Thanksgiving Show

We awoke the sleeping tradition of a Thanksgiving show this year with the Gomby Brothers as our hosts and a special guest appearance by "Mr. Hazel." We were led through a world of Pilgrims, puppets, and monsters. We met the oldest stuntman in the world and were shown that a "Climax Watch" does indeed take a licking and still keeps ticking. We thank Danny and Lisa for putting up with us and especially Mr. Lowe, for making it all possible.

Once again, the Thanksgiving Show was a success! The hard work, rehearsals, and frustration was well worth the smiles on the faces of the audience. We hope that future classes at C.H.S. will keep with the important tradition of Thanksgiving Spirit, so much a part of our lives at Clinton High.

FRANKENSTEIN SLEPT HERE ANOTHER VICTORY

Another successful evening. It was too good to be true. Again we were awarded with the "Best Play" trophy, along with "Best Actor," and "Best Actress," also "Best Supporting Actress." They were won by Anastos Chiavards, "Igor," Donna Foster, "The Phantom Bride," and Cheryl O'Connell, "The Werewolf." The atmosphere however, was hardly spooky.

SENIOR PROM – FOREVERMORE

Our Senior Prom was held on February 5, 1977 at Turner Hall. We chose for our theme song 'Forevermore,' it was composed and sung by 77's very own Daniel Eaton. The music was provided by Windfall who also chose our Queen and her Court.

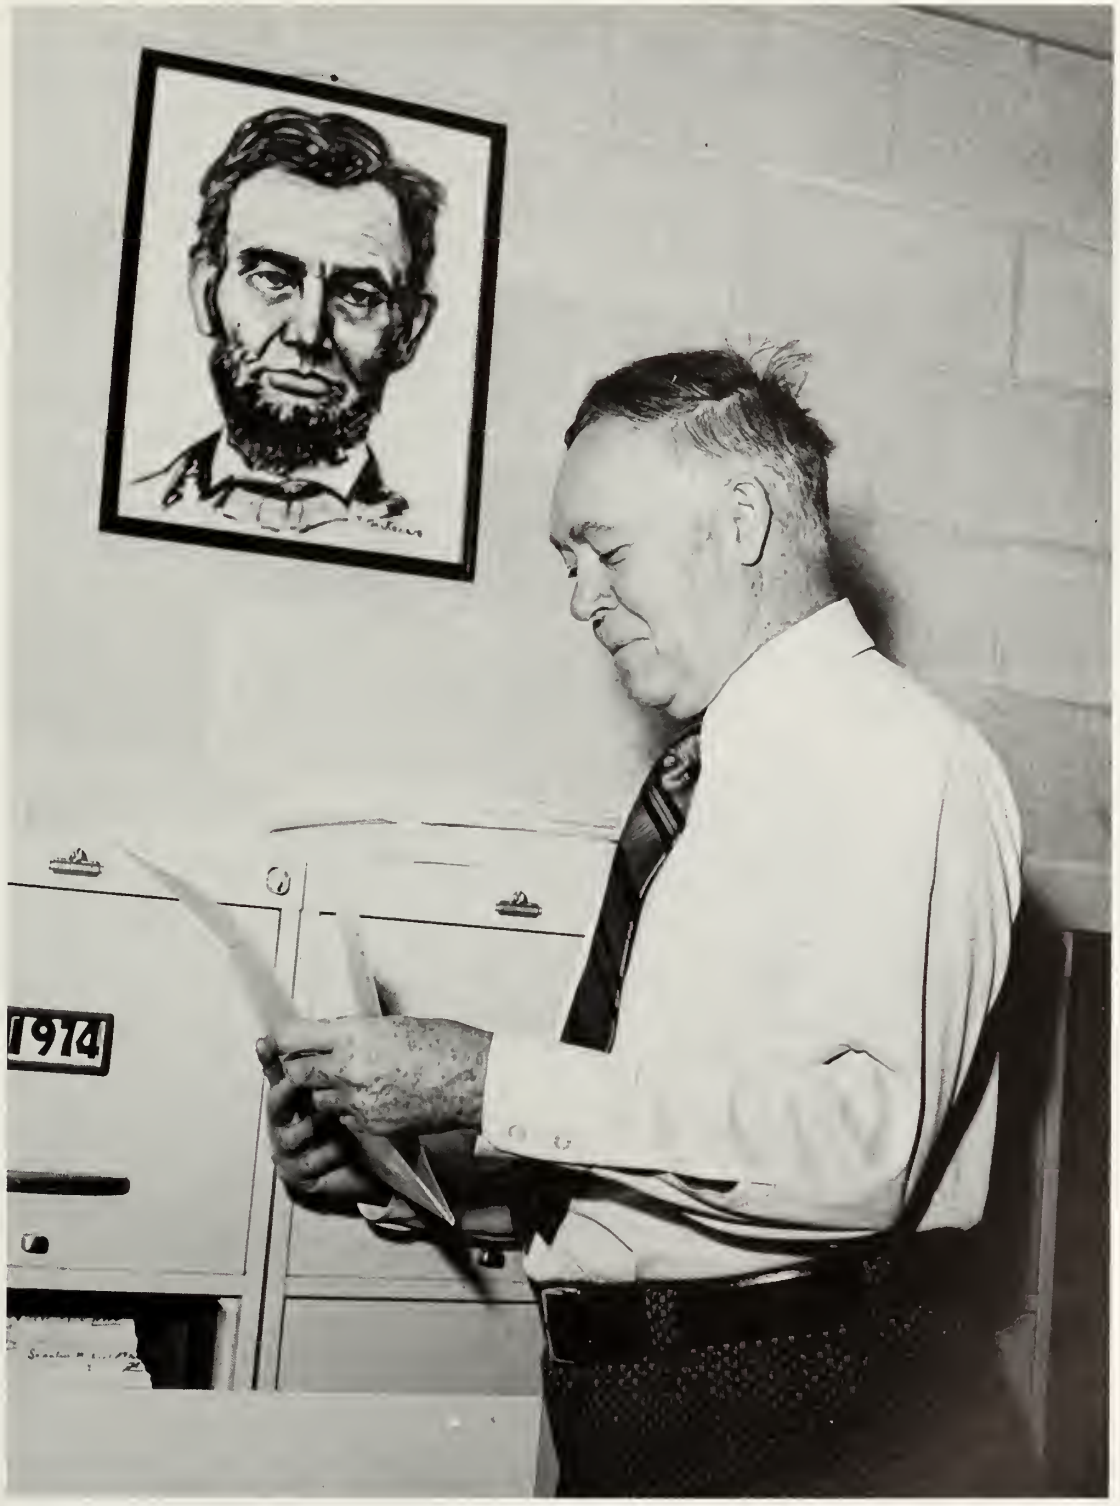
Peter J. O'Toole



"It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us — that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion."

"Malice towards none; charity towards all."

Cross Country

Clinton's Cross Country Team kept up with tradition by having a winning record this year. Capt. Jerry Collins paced the Gael harriers to a 7-5 season with wins over tough Midland League contenders such as Milford and Hudson. Coach Glenn Braunhardt worked the Gaels but it all payed off. The team will miss Jerry, but is sure to have a great team next year as well.

Field Hockey

The Clinton High Field Hockey Team's record 3-11 doesn't do justice to the kind of team it was. With Co-Capt. Mary Cooney at left inner and Donna Lachman at left wing, the Gaelettes forward line put a real scare into many an opponents defense. The defensive work of Co-Capt. Nancy Murphy, Ann Gillespie, and Mary Andrejczyk kept the other teams on their toes. The end of the season was highlighted by the appointment of Donna Lachman, Mary Cooney, and Nancy Murphy to the Midland League Honorable Mention Team.

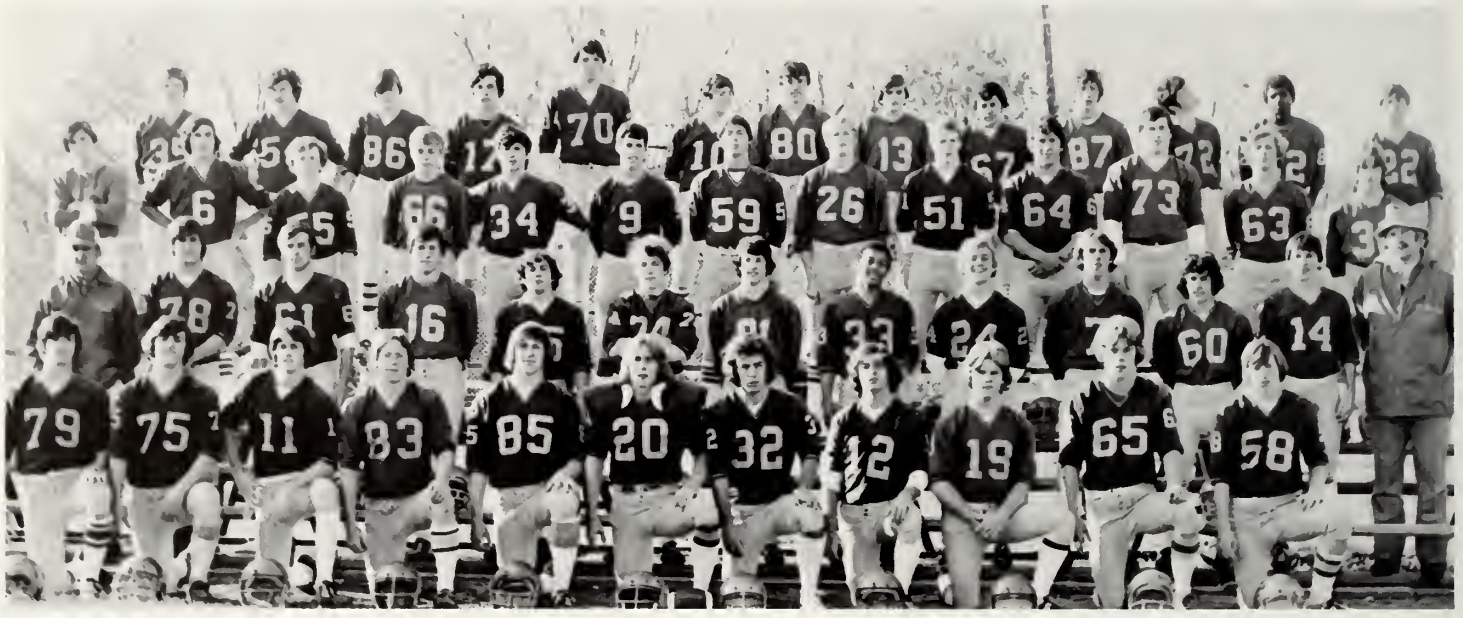
FOOTBALL



Although the teams record did not reflect the style of play preformed by the team; as senior members of the 1976-77 edition of the C.H.S. Football team feel we were the nucleus of stronger teams to come over the horizons. We know that we will always hold our heads high because of this. Our only regret is no longer being able to say "We'll be back next year."

VOLLEYBALL

The Volleyball team, under the guidance of coach, Madeleine Beaulieu had a good season this year. Their 8-5 record didn't get them the Midland League title, but it did put them in a playoff spot for the District III tournament where they took that title. They went on to the States where they played well against Boston, but were defeated. With the superb playing of Janice King, Donna Foster, and Trisha O'Toole, the Gaelettes proved to the other teams that you just don't mess with the BEST!

Basketball

The 1976-77 Gael's basketball team was built around a nucleus of 4 returning seniors. This team was one of Coach Gerry Foley's smallest but none surpassed it in desire. Coach Foley had this team hustling and consistently taking advantage of the opponents mistakes, but in the end, the taller teams prevailed. It was especially fitting that this team finished it's season on a winning note, because win or lose, they gave their all.

Ice Hockey

Clinton High participated for the first time in Midland League play this year. It was a learning season and the Gaels finished with a 1-8 record. The team was led by three strong-skating seniors in Sean Kilcoyne, Martin Cutler, and Dave Trinque. The Gaels also received excellent goaltending from senior Paul Meilinger. Coach Robert Schilale is looking forward to a more productive season next year. It can also be noted that Brian Lynch scored the first goal in Clinton history in a game against Marlboro.

Baseball

This was the first year for Head Coach Bill Walsh. His influence gave us the hustle and desire we needed to develop a competative attitude. The Gaels were led by their five returning starters; Co-captains Tom Dickhaut and Steve Soldi, Mark Hutchinson, Joe Kittredge and Steve Sargent.

The Clinton High girls softball team was a team in every sense of the word. When the odds were against them, they pulled together to come up with the key plays that win games.
